Norfolk.—Twenty young people in the Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church, South, dedicated their lives to Epworth League work during the past year, Allen J. Carter, field secretary, reported at the anniversary services of the Epworth League held in Epworth M. E. Church.

* * *

University. — Children are being given especial attention at the University of Virginia Hospital, for now that the new wing of the hospital, hospital obstetrical and children's cases, has been opened, it is possible to care for child injuries and diseases in a way that has not been possible in the past.

* * *

Winchester.—Robert G. Gibbons, former assistant postmaster here, and for many years a postal inspector, with headquarters at various times in Philadelphia, South Carolina and Kentucky, is seriously ill of hardening of the arteries in St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia, according to advices received by friends here.

* * *

Roanoke.—This city has begun to test carefully the eyesight of all applicants for drivers' licenses, reasoning that a large proportion of automobile accidents are due solely to defective vision. Roanoke has refused licenses this year to any one who did not have one-half normal vision. Of 4,496 applicants 124 were found to be below the standard.

* * *

Lynchburg. — Allen, 13-year-old daughter of Mrs. Druse Wood, of 519 Stafford street, here, is unconscious at a local hospital, as result of a fractured skull sustained a week ago, when she fell from the running board of an automobile, from which she was about to alight on her way to the West End school. The car was moving slowly at the time and the child either stepped off or fell from the car just before it stopped.

* * *

Ashland.—The registration drive committee of the League of Women Voters branch of the Ashland Civic League announces that as a result of the recent campaign for more voters, 72 per cent. of the members of the Ashland Civic League are now registered. Branch Johnson and Miss Nora Houston, of Richmond, were here last week making speeches and holding conferences in regard to registration.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—John O. Phillips, of Shenandoah, was elected president of the Valley of Virginia Odd Fellows' Association here at the first annual meeting of the organization composed of forty lodges in Western Virginia, and New Market was chosen for next year's session. Phillips succeeds C. D. Reeves, of Staunton. C. L. Wilson, of Churchville, was re-elected secretary, and A. B. Bauserman, of Staunton, was again named treasurer.

* * *

Cape Charles.—The Eastern Shore of Virginia Bankers' Association, consisting of the banks of Northampton and Accomac counties, was formed last week when representatives from the banks of the two counties met in Cape Charles. The purpose of the new organization is to improve the service rendered by the banks and to foster banking interests and ethics in the two counties. A. T. Hickman, of Painter, was elected president.

* * *

Newport News.—The trawlers Foam and Spray left Hampton Roads to begin the search for the treasure which went down with the Ward Liner Merida off the Virginia Capes several years ago. The Merida sank about thirty miles north of Cape Henry, when rammed during a fog by the Admiral Farragut. The trawlers carry three divers and many pieces of drag apparatus with which they hope to locate the wreck. Aboard one of the boats is a radio operator who has promised to keep the radio fans of the nation advised of the progress made in the search.

* * *

Charlottesville.—The top of Rose Ridge Mountain in the Jefferson Highway, near Afton, was the scene Sunday night of a stabbing affray in which Robert Harris, colored, of Charlottesville, was killed. A coroner's jury in Charlottesville charged Frank Keyes, colored, also of Charlottesville, with having done the cutting. Keyes is in the county jail. The fight occurred when a party of negroes, returning from Waynesboro in a taxicab, ran out of gas and were pushing the car to the crest of the mountain so that it would drift to Afton.

* * *

Fredericksburg—The supervisors of Caroline county have made an appropriation of $800 per year for three years to provide for county agent work during the term of the present board. District Agent J. H. Quisenberry addressed the board and gave figured showing the earnings of the boys and girls engaged in club work for this year were in excess of $3,600.

* * *

Lexington.—Students at Washington and Lee again have gone on record in opposition to the use of intoxicants at dances and have adopted resolutions reaffirming their intention to stand solidly behind the regulations prohibiting the drinking of spirituous liquors at the social affairs. The resolutions open with the declaration "Be it resolved: That our dances hereafter be dry." The "dry" rules apply to visitors and spectators as well, the resolutions state.

* * *

Covington.—Strenuous application of first-aid finally restored consciousness and saved the life of the one-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Ernest Hoke, after the child had fallen into a large tub filled with bluing water, which its mother had left in the back yard. The child remained in the water for several minutes before being found, and was apparently drowned when its mother, on coming out of the house, was horrified at seeing the child lying under the water in the tub.

* * *

Covington.—Hayes B. Nickell, 25 years old, automobile mechanic, shot and painfully wounded his brother-in-law, Carl Brisendine, at Nickell's home in Teaberry Flats, about one and one-half miles west of Covington, as the result of what is said to have been a family quarrel, Brisendine was treated by Dr. H. W. Anderson and the wound in his limb was dressed. He was later taken to the C. & O. Hospital at Clifton Forge for treatment. Nickell gave himself up to officers a short time after the shooting. Nickell told officers he was quarreling with his wife over some incident that had occurred, and that his wife's brother came into the house. Nickell said Brisendine took part in the argument and threatened to attack him.

* * *

Danville.—The pot-hole digger's usefulness in the county of Pittsylvania is revealed here by the police, who arrested Eli McDaniel and Ben Hairston, charging them with violating the Layman act. Officers participating in the raid describe McDaniel's backyard on Voorhouse Hill as being a series of liquor catacombs since they found more than fifty holes, each one containing a fruit jar, some filled with liquor and some empty. Spread over the burial plot was a layer of hay. The pot-hole digger, when inserted in the ground, was toped to dig a hole just large enough for the deposit of a fruit jar and the theory is that when the man received a shipment he lost no time in doling it out into the containers, which later were withdrawn as business opportunities appeared.

* * *

Winchester. — State Commander George Michie, of Charlottesville, and members of the State executive committee of the auxiliary of the American Legion are to be guests of the local auxiliary on Armistice Day, November 11, when Memorial Avenue and oak trees planted thereon are formally dedicated. Mrs. W. A. Baker, of this city, is president of the State auxiliary. Miss Frances Beverley was elected president of the local auxiliary, succeeding Mrs. Baker, who resigned when she became State president. The auxiliary has planted forty-one oak trees on Memorial Avenue, near the Handley School grounds, in memory of forty-one service men of the city and county who died during or since the World War.

* * *

Richmond.—Virginia will be a party to the test case before the United States Supreme Court which will decide the momentous question of the motor vehicle's status as a means of interstate transportation. The case, Barnes vs. Kuykendall, is set for hearing November 10. The principle involved is whether the several States have sole jurisdiction over motor transportation, regardless of whether it be intrastate or interstate. In the case to be heard, the plaintiff applied in Washington for a certificate of authority to operate a motor vehicle line between Vancouver and Seattle. The public utilities commission of that State denied the petition on the conventional ground that the public convenience already was being served. Barnes filed with the United States District Court a bill in equity seeking to enjoin State officials from interfering with the operation of his proposed line, holding that it had no jurisdiction over interstate commerce. The court denied the injunction and the case was appealed to the Supreme Court.

Lesson for October 26

THE STILLING OF THE STORM

LESSON TEXT—Mark 4:35-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?—Mark 4:41.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Story of a Great Storm.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Stills the Tempest.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Power of Jesus Over Nature.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Meet the Storms of Life.

Jesus was a great Teacher, as was shown in the parable of last lesson, but Mark's aim was to show Him as the Divine Servant doing mighty deeds. Hence after the parables are presented deeds which show Him to be the master of the forces of nature, demons, diseases and death. His mastery of the forces of nature is the particular deed shown in this lesson.

I. Jesus and the Disciples Crossing the Sea (vv. 35, 36).

Weary with the teaching of the day, He proposes that they go over to the other side of the sea, the aim doubtless being to escape the crush of the multitude. They did not delay, for "they took Him even as He was in the ship."

II. Overtaken by a Storm (v. 37).

Others were present on Galilee, but this was an unusual storm. It was a furious tempest, so great that the waves beat into the ship so that it was full. Even though Jesus was in the boat with the disciples they were overtaken by a storm. To follow Christ does not necessarily mean smooth sailing or cloudless skies. Indeed, it rather implies that we will have to encounter storms. However, those who have Christ on their boat need fear.

III. Jesus Himself in the Storm-Tossed Boat (v. 38).

The day had been a very strenuous one and He was weary. In the midst of the turbulent elements He was resting in sleep. He who made the sea could well lie down and sleep though the storm did violently rage. His being asleep did not indicate that He was indifferent to the need of His disciples.

IV. The Terrified Disciples (v. 38).

In their minds nothing but disaster and death awaited them. There was absolutely no danger for no boat can go down regardless of the violence of the storm which has Christ on board. The disciples were not only terrified but they chided Him for sleeping while they were in such great danger. It was all right for them to come to Him for help but it was presumptuous on their part to make a demand upon Him.

V. Christ's Rebuke (vv. 39, 40).

He arose and rebuked the wind. Unless we see Him as the God-Man we will be perplexed, for we see a human being sleeping because of exhaustion and then we hear the divine voice of the Creator and Ruler of the universe. He who was asleep has power to rebuke and calm the raging elements.

1. The Wind (v. 39). This showed that He had power over the elements of nature for at His command the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

2. The Disciples for Their Lack of Faith (v. 40). They were looking upon their circumstances instead of upon their Lord. For all the disciples had seen and heard they should have been without fear in the company of Jesus. Let us learn to trust Him for His power over all things.

VI. The Effect Upon the Disciples (v. 41).

They were filled with great fear. A little while ago they were afraid in the face of a storm. Now they are afraid in the presence of the Lord. Frequently marvelous deliverance by the Lord so affect God's children that they are more alarmed over the presence of a divine being than they are by the threatening perils. Let us see that standing in our midst though unseen today is our Lord and that despite the raging of the storm we can hear His voice of peace.

Christianity

Christianity is a religion of the Spirit. And, whatever else a church may or may not have, possession of the Spirit of God is that which makes it Christian. Elaborate formalism, beautiful architecture, ornate discourses may be vehicles for the expression of the Spirit, but they must be understood to be secondary and subsidiary only. When we understood they are legitimate and praiseworthy.—Christian Work.

Our Blessings

We fail to get much benefit from many blessings because we do not stop long enough to observe.—Herald and Presbyter.

The Wages of Sin

VERA

Corn shucking is now on the tapis.

November 8th as the day the Co-Ops are going to make a payment on tobacco—sold last year, sounds good to patient farmers, who have been "hoping" for quite a while.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly around here, all things considered—Some thoughtless person piled logs and rocks in the road which might have caused a calamity; fortunately no one was hurt. People were on the lookout for vandals and one young man went so far as to have his car drawn near his bedroom window and hung a cow bell on it as an alarm in case it should be moved "safety first", is evidently his motto.

Two little ones were ushered into this world of trouble along with the advent of "all saint's day", one to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Reynolds and one to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Chenault.—Congratulations.

The "Wildway meat market" is a new enterprise just opened in our neighborhood. We do not know the name of the stockholders, but we do know that they supply us with nice fresh meat once a week at a reasonable price, which is satisfying.

Rev. Mr. Gordon had a sale of personal property last Friday, preparatory to his departure to "Greener fields and pastures new". He and his estimable family will be greatly missed by his flock in this neighborhood

We understand Mr. Will Carter will open store at Tower Hill soon.

Mr. Morris Ferguson, who was kicked by a mule last week, is able to be out again, we are glad to report.

J. Everette Childers of the firm of Nuttycombe and Childers, went to Lynchburg Monday to buy goods for their store.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Trent and children visited friends in Lynchburg Sunday.

Miss Chrisrine Garrett, who is attending school at Blackstone Institute, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Garrett.

Miss Bessie Gunter of A. A. H. S visited home folks Monday.

Miss Nelda Robertson who is attending school at A. H. S is at home sick—we hope, not seriously.

Pamplin

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Booker, of Norfolk, were recent guests of their sister, Mrs. Sallie Booker.

Mrs. L. N. Ligon and Mrs. H. T. Terry attended the W. M. U. State Convention held in Norfolk last week. Over the Convention was that sweet spirit of love and harmony, over five hundred delegates registered. The meetings were inspiring and interesting and much enjoyed,

A group meeting was held at Rocks Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was present and an interesting program rendered. Those on program were: Mesdames. McCue, Duling, L. N. Ligon, J. B. Wilson, and Miss Mattie Moss. Mrs. Inge spoke gracious words of welcome.

The Billy Sunday boys of Evergreen are holding a series of meetings at Harmony school house.

S. M. Ranson has been ill, but is better.

G. T. Marsh's baby who has been very ill is better.

Big Time at Bent Creek.

There will be a supper served at Liggan's mission at Bent Creek Thanksgiving evening and night from 4 to 9 o'clock. The eats will be plentiful and will consist of oysters, chicken, ham, celery, lettuce, hot coffee, ice cream and cakes of all kinds at a very small cost. The program, which is free, will include music by Hovett's five-piece orchestra, which is the best in Lynchburg. Misses May Foster and Nannie Seay will sing several selections. Tom Foster, of Lynchburg, will pull off his slight of hand stunts. Come and eat a good old time oyster stew—rain or sunshine.

Job Work done neatly and promptly at this office.

SEVERE CRAMPING SPELLS, PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

"My trouble has been periodic cramping spells," says Mrs. C. C. Draper, of Atlanta, Texas. "For several years these have come on me so bad that I had to quit my work and go to bed. Every month I would stay in bed from one to two days. The pains in my back and sides were awful.

"This went on for several months after I was married until, one time when I was having a bad spell, my husband suggested that I try Cardui. I said I would try it, so he got me a bottle at the store and I began to take it.

"It seemed like I improved from the very first dose. When I had taken one bottle I was very much better. I did not cramp so hard the next month and I ate and slept better. I was not nearly so nervous, either. I thought Cardui was fine, so I continued the treatment until I had taken five bottles, at which time I felt completely well. I had no more cramping spells at all, and my health was as good as anybody's. I am feeling fine now and I give all the credit to Cardui, for I had been suffering for years before I took it."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, containing no harmful ingredients. It is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Its users have testified to its special value at the time of entering womanhood at maturity and at the time of the change of life.

For over 60 years, Cardui has been tested in use by thousands of women who have written to tell of the great benefit they have received from it. For over 600 years, medical authorities have recommended one of the principal ingredients of Cardui in the treatment of certain female complaints.

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is sold by dealers everywhere. It is the product of many years of experience and investigation. It is manufactured in up-to-date laboratories by the most modern and sanitary methods of pharmaceutical science and is for sale by all druggists.
